EDITORIAL

Empathy, according to me, is an important life skill which needs to be inculcated in children right from the childhood. Children should be groomed in such a learning environment where every child becomes sensitive to understand and experience the feelings /emotions of others as if they were our own.

When we empathize with someone, we are participating in a profound act of human connection, bridging the gap between self and other. By embracing empathy, we at DPS Vidyutnagar are committed to cultivate a spirit of compassion and love so that we can grow to the best version of ourselves, ready to make the entire world a peaceful and compassionate place to live in.

In the end, I thoroughly appreciate the quote given by a famous psychologist 'Carl Rogers'

"The good life is a process, not a state of being.
It is a direction not a destination."

Poonam Dua
